3. You will note that per diem has not been computed for the period 17 to 20 July 1948 on the travel voucher covering travel performed by [ ]. The Travel Orders issued for [ ]'s return travel did not authorize official duty in New York en route to his official station. If the advance departure was for purposes of official duty in New York, a supplemental voucher claiming per diem may be submitted.

4. Whenever travel has been performed and expense incurred on account of an emergency, or without prior authority, the travel voucher must be approved by the head of the department or independent establishment, or by an official designated by him for this purpose, and such approval shall constitute the authority for the travel. All vouchers submitted on account of such travel must contain a satisfactory statement of the facts constituting the necessity therefor.
