EX-NAZI OFFICIALS IN CAIRO NAMED

Propagandist As Leader

ANTI-SEMITIC CAMPAIGN

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT

VIENNA, Tuesday

A FULL list of prominent former Nazi and Fascist refugees in Cairo who are helping to direct or exploit the current anti-Semitic campaign from Egyptian soil was made available to me in Vienna to-day by an authoritative source.

As revealed last week the Egyptian end of the campaign is being put to the under the overall direction of Dr. Johannes von Leers, a former Nazi propaganda official. He answers to the name of "Omar Amin von Leers," the name he assumed on his conversion to Islam a year or two ago.

His address is given as 27 11th Street, in the Cairo suburb of Mohandessin. It is he who has "engaged" other ex-Nazis in search of a home and secured asylum offers for them from the Egyptians.

One of his most recent arrivals was Ludwig Zind, the West German teacher sentenced in December, 1958, to 12 months' imprisonment for anti-Semitic activities. Zind fled through Italy to Egypt where, with the help of von Leers, he has settled down to work in the Arab cause under the name of Mahmoud Saleh.

GESTAPO CHIEF

"Mein Kampf" Translator

Other [illegible] are Joseph Gleim, ex-crime [illegible] chief in Warsaw, who was sentenced to death by the Poles in absentia in 1945; Louis Heiden, ex-Nazi journalist from Berlin, who translated Hitler's "Mein Kampf" into [illegible] and Hans Appler, a former assistant of Julius Streicher, the notorious Nazi Jew-hunter.

Appler arrived in Egypt from Spain [illegible] years ago and now works as a bacteriological warfare expert [illegible]. A sprinkling of non-Germans are also among the group.

A [illegible] section of Nazi refugees in Egypt are the former SS officers' employer, the Col. Nasser's security service. They have a separate section [illegible] von Leers' organisation but are linked with him.

SECURITY ADVISER

Concentration Camps

One example is Ibrahim Durrfeld, once an SS major and Gestapo chief of Duesseldorf. He is said to be working now as an adviser to the Egyptian security services on "peoples tribunals" and concentration camps. Heinrich Sellmann, who was a Gestapo official in Cologne, is working with him under the Islamic name of Mohammed Sulaiman.

There is no evidence that the present anti-Semitic wave was launched in Cairo. But the suggestion is that the ex-Nazi colony there are now raising the crest of that wave for all it is worth.

London Daily Telegraph
20 January 1960

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCES METHODS EXEMPTION 3B2B
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2002 2006

BEST AVAILABLE COPY