Lieut. General Walter B. Smith, U.S. Army
Director U.S. Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Bedell:

Congratulations on your new and important assignment and we all are happy about it.

I am here in Greece as Ports' Administrator for all Ports and in charge of Direct Procurement Ocean Shipments.

When and if I come through Washington I will surely stop and see you, in the meantime if I can help in any way, I will be happy to give any assistance.

Sincerely Yours,

C.H. Kells

Dear Clarence:

Thank you for your thoughtful note of congratulations and good wishes.

This promises to be a rough assignment and, frankly, I am not too delighted with the prospects. I had hoped to avoid this job but with the advent of the Korean situation could not decline. Now I am completely for it.

I expect to take over my new post about the middle of October and will look forward to seeing you when you come through Washington.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

B. Bedell
