Daily Staff Meeting

Wednesday, 14 February 1951

Mr. Dulles reported that he had met with Mr. Lawton, Statts, Admiral Souers, and Mr. Lay and General Magruder to discuss the psychological warfare program. A draft for Mr. Statts setting up a committee composed of the Undersecretary of State, Deputy Secretary of Defense, DCI and a full time chairman was generally approved with the addition of Mr. Barrett and a representative for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The committee would have authority over policy and program and an approved draft is expected today.

Mr. McConnell reported that the Government printers had been briefed on our printing requirements.

Mr. Dulles reported that the Director briefed General Eisenhower
