APPROVED FOR RELEASE Historical Collections Division HR 70-14 Date: 2 May 2012

TOP SECRET

Director's Meeting

Mr. Wolf reported that would report on 16 July or a short period and then be away until Labor Day at which time he could report permanently. He is bringing with him a man named Briggs to be his assistant. The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed the opinion that they could handle them.
or a short period and then be away until Labor Day at which time he ould report permanently. He is bringing with him a man named Briggs to be his assistant. The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed or a short period and then be away until Labor Day at which time he ould report permanently. He is bringing with him a man named Briggs to be his assistant. The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed or a short period and then be away until Labor Day at which time he ould report permanently. He is bringing with him a man named Briggs to be his assistant. The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed or a short period and then be away until Labor Day at which time he ould report permanently. He is bringing with him a man named Briggs to be his assistant. The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed or a short period and then be away until Labor Day at which time he ould report permanently. He is bringing with him a man named Briggs to be his assistant. The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed or a short period and then be away until Labor Day at which time he ould report permanently. He is bringing with him a man named Briggs to be his assistant. The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed ould report permanently. He is bringing with him a man named Briggs to be his assistant. The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had seen signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed The Director asked whether was to be hired. It was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had seen signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in this connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated including East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed t was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in his connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated notluding East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed
t was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in his connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated notluding East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed
t was pointed out that this wouldn't be done until the contract had een signed and that certain unanticipated difficulties had risen in his connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated notluding East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed his connection. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated notluding East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that General Truscott had advocated noluding East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed ncluding East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed
ncluding East German Scientists in the defector center and expressed
•

It was recommended that the Psychological Strategy Board be convened for a meeting at an early date inasmuch as a month has lapsed since the last meeting.

The Director said that Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Wolf should call on Mrs. Rosenberg at her convenience to discuss the matter of military personnel.

LBK