Official Diary

Tuesday, 4 September 1951

Received a phone call from [redacted] from Manchester, New Hampshire, inquiring if he had been rejected or whether CIA could use his services. I thereupon phoned [redacted] of Personnel and asked him to ascertain what offices might have an interest in [redacted] experience. [redacted] to whom I returned the file, promised to carry through on this with some expedition. I have undertaken to call [redacted] when some decision has been reached.

HR70-14

General Davison called with an invitation for the DCI to go duck shooting with him in Canada, beginning Monday, the 8th of October through the 10th. I referred this to [redacted] who promised to follow through.
