HR70-14

Official Diary

29 October 1951

Talked to Col. Baird about a meeting which he will have with the Personnel Procurement people. They claim that there are more women in the Agency than we want and that the turnover is too great. Col. Baird does not agree with this and thinks that a great many more jobs could be handled by women than is now the case. He feels this should be brought up at the next AD's meeting.
