HR70-14

[Redacted]

Mr. Dulles stated that he had seen [Redacted] over the weekend and he is willing to go ahead, ~~in Italy~~. He would like a six months' leave of absence from the Petroleum Institute. The DCI stated that in fairness we would have to inform the Institute that if everything worked out well after a trial of 6 months, we would then ask for an indefinite leave of absence for [Redacted]

The DCI reported that he had called [Redacted] wanting him to replace [Redacted] on the Board of National Estimates. Unfortunately, he is not available.

Mr. Wolf stated that he now has a list of all safe houses which he will show to the Director.

Mr. Wisner has a paper from the PSB staff in regard to formulation of a National Psychological Strategy ~~Board~~. This appears to be the first step towards drawing up a strategic plan. There will be informal discussion this afternoon and Mr. Wisner will attend.
