SUMMARY

The barracks area covers approximately 165 acres and contains 3 administration buildings, 11 barracks, 8 barracks/quarters, 8 officers/dependents quarters, 34 storage buildings, 38 support buildings, 2 vehicle maintenance buildings, 7 vehicle sheds, 9 probable vehicle sheds, a small-arms firing range, and an athletic field (Figures 2 and 3).

An ammunition storage area containing 10 ammunition storage buildings and 5 support buildings, a storage area containing 6 storage buildings and 1 support building, and a tracked-vehicle driver-training course are 2.2 kilometers (km) southeast of the barracks area. A probable wheeled-vehicle-mounted automatic-weapons moving-target firing range is 9.5 km south of the barracks area. One storage building and 11 support buildings are located to the rear of the range (Figure 2).

The installation was covered on 9 KEYHOLE missions between August 1960 and September 1964. Comparative analysis reveals no significant changes in facilities and a high level of activity throughout the period.
