MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director of Central Intelligence
FROM : John N. McMahon
Deputy Director for Operations
SUBJECT : STATUTE on the Combined Armed Forces and Combined Command of the Warsaw Pact Member States

1. The enclosed Intelligence Information Special Report is a translation from Russian of one of four SECRET statutes which establish the principal military organizations of the Warsaw Pact and govern their activities. The present statute defines the organization and functions of the Combined Armed Forces, delineates the authority and responsibilities of the Commander-in-Chief, Deputy and Chief of Staff, and outlines the activities of the Military Council, Staff and Technical Committee. It also provides brief guidelines on the financial responsibilities of the members, with both manpower and contributions based on proportional representation.

2. Because the source of this report is extremely sensitive, this document should be handled on a strict need-to-know basis within recipient agencies.

STATUTE

ON THE COMBINED ARMED FORCES
AND THE COMBINED COMMAND OF
THE WARSAW PACT MEMBER STATES

(For Peacetime)

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

The present Statute on the Combined Armed Forces which are allocated in accordance with the agreement of the Warsaw Pact member states, for combined actions in compliance with Article 5 of the Pact, and on the Combined Command, is based on the principles of the Warsaw Pact of Friendship, Cooperation and Mutual Assistance, concluded on 14 May 1955 in Warsaw.

The experience of many years of activity of the Warsaw Pact Organization underscores the stability of these principles, the devotion of the member states of the Pact to the responsibilities assumed by them, and their resolution to act in accordance with Warsaw Pact requirements.

In the event of an armed attack in Europe against one or several member states of the Pact by any one state or a group of states, every member state of the Pact by way of exercising the right to individual or collective self-defense, will afford to the state or states subjected to such an attack, immediate assistance, individually or in coordination with other member states of the Pact, by all means necessary, including the use of armed force. Member states of the Pact will immediately confer regarding combined measures which must be taken for the purposes of reestablishing and maintaining international peace and security.

For this purpose, the members of the Pact established the Combined Armed Forces and take the necessary steps to strengthen them and constantly increase their combat readiness, and coordinate their efforts in mutual defense for the protection of peace and socialism in Europe.

On the basis of Article 5 of the indicated Pact, a Combined Command is established, headed by the Commander-in-Chief of the Combined Armed Forces, for the purpose of commanding the Combined Armed Forces and coordinating their activities.

I. THE COMBINED ARMED FORCES OF THE WARSAW PACT
MEMBER STATES

1. By Combined Armed Forces of the Warsaw Pact member states is meant the forces and means which are allocated in accordance with the agreement of the Warsaw Pact member states for combined actions, and the combined military organs established in accordance with Article 5 of the Pact of Friendship, Cooperation and Mutual Assistance, signed on 14 May 1955 in Warsaw by the heads of the Warsaw Pact member states.

2. The complement of the Combined Armed Forces of the Warsaw Pact member states includes the allocated national military units, large units, and formations of all branches of the armed forces, and support units, control and rear services organs, designated in accordance with the decision of the government of each country for the conduct of combined combat actions, as well as the control organs of the Combined Armed Forces.

The total number of national troops allocated for peacetime and wartime, a list of large units, units, rear services facilities and control organs, their organization, armament and equipping, the levels of reserves of materiel, and the scale of measures for operational preparation of territories of the countries are established by the government of each country taking into account the recommendations of the Commander-in-Chief of the Combined Armed Forces and the directives of the Political Consultative Committee depending on the means at its disposal and its economic capabilities. These matters are officially recorded in the form of special protocols, which are signed by the Commander-in-Chief of the Combined Armed Forces and by the ministers of defense of each state and are approved by the governments of the respective Warsaw Pact member states.

3. Troops and naval forces allocated to the complement of the Combined Armed Forces by the Warsaw Pact member states for peacetime remain in direct subordination to the respective ministers of defense, and their lives and activities are regulated by the laws, statutes and military regulations existing in each country. Moreover, the ministers of defense bear full responsibility before their governments for the condition, armament, equipping, combat readiness, and military and political indoctrination of the personnel of their troops and for the establishment of the reserves of materiel-technical means prescribed for them.

The Commander-in-Chief, with respect to the Combined Armed Forces in peacetime, exercises the authority stipulated in Section III of the present Statute.

The procedure for command of the Combined Armed Forces, the activity of the Combined Command, as well as the interrelationships of the Combined Command and national commands in wartime are determined by a special Statute.

4. For combined accomplishment of the tasks of air defense of the Warsaw Pact member states a unified air defense system of the Warsaw Pact member states is established.

5. The planning of the wartime employment of the troops which are allocated to the Combined Armed Forces, is carried out by the ministers of defense and the General (Main) Staffs of the Warsaw Pact member states taking into account the recommendations of the Commander-in-Chief of the Combined Armed Forces and the proposals of the General Staff of the Armed Forces of the USSR, and when necessary, with the cooperation of the adjacent armies of the Warsaw Pact member states. The operations plans devised for utilizing the troops allocated from each country in wartime, are signed by the ministers of defense and by the Commander-in-Chief of the Combined Armed Forces and are approved by the respective governments of the Warsaw Pact member states.

II. THE COMBINED COMMAND, SENIOR PERSONNEL AND CONTROL ORGANS OF THE COMBINED ARMED FORCES

6. In the Combined Command are established the following posts:
