ALESTINIAN TERRORISM

Polestinian terrorist groups have stepped up their operations in Israel and the ecupied territories in accordance with plan developed several months ago. Israe-5 socurity forces are able to counter most but not all of the terrorist operations, which have a new impetus as the Palestinlins (ry to draw attention to their cause just orior to the Egyptian - Israeli - US summit talks to be held at Camp David next veek

The Palestinians have attempted some 20 te provistaets in Israel or the occupied terreturies during the past two weeks—a number already larger than the known total for the month of July. The actions usually involve the planting of explosives in market areas and other public places, but hive included one rocket attack.

Most of the bombs have either been detected before they went off or caused uninimal casualties or property damage. An explosion in the Gaza Strip on 23 August, however, killed two Arabs and injure: several others. It was the first known incident there in over a year.

An Israeli settlement in the occupied West Bank territory

In addition to underscoring the need for a Palestinian voice in Arab-Israeli settlement efforts, the terrorist operations are intended to demonstrate that the Palestine Liberation Organization is a force to be reckoned with and that it can operate despite Israeli security measures. Yasir Arafat's Fatah has conducted some of the operations, apparently in order to strengthen its image and position in relation to the Palestinian extremists.
