MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Plans), PG

THROUGH : Chief, SR Division

SUBJECT : Extension of Project AEACRE for period 1 July - 31 December, 1963

REFERENCES : A. Project AEACRE, FY 1958 with renewals through 1963
 B. CSI-F No. 52-10
 C. CSHB No. 230-60-1

1. The purpose of this memorandum is to extend Project AEACRE for a period of six months in accordance with provisions of Reference C, paragraph 11.

2. Upon the recommendation of Chief, SR Division, approved by the Deputy Director (Plans), a Study Group was appointed for the purpose of reviewing, evaluating and recommending the reorganization of SR Division's Domestic Operations Base and the transfer of the Base from SR Division to DODS so as to afford the Base an opportunity to better provide support to various components of the Clandestine Services.

3. The Study Group consists of representatives from:

SR Division	Office of Training
EE Division	War Plans Staff
Domestic Operations Division	DD/P (Training)
Special Operations Division

4. Representatives of the Study Group have visited the Base and its training site and are currently meeting to consolidate their various recommendations which will then be presented to the Deputy Director (Plans) for approval. Upon completion of this action, and prior to 31 December 1963, a renewal or rewrite of Project AEACRE will be submitted for approval if deemed appropriate under the revision of the Domestic Operations Base.

5. In order to provide ample time for the Study Group action, it is requested that Project AEACRE be extended for the period 1 July - 31 December 1963 in the amount of _____ the breakdown as follows:

7,500.00	4 trainers, debriefer, translators
4,200.00	3 housekeeping couples
	full-time P/A in field
	TOTAL

Sufficient funds are included in SR Division's FY 1964 Operational Program.
