1. Contact Operations

A. During a brief, informal meeting with ~~Micholad~~ HADUN, AECASSOWARY 2 obtained some information regarding his recent (June) trip to the Ukrainian SSR. HADUN spent most of his time in Lvov and through the intercession of ~~Vasyl~~ STEPANYK, head of the Lvovska Oblast who has a son in Canada, was permitted to visit his home village near Lvov. HADUN also visited Kiev briefly. Details will be obtained from AECASSOWARY 2.

* B. Stephen OLYNYCK, who made arrangements to attend the Vienna Youth Festival under the auspices of the pro-Communist festival committee in New York, recently was notified by the Committee that his application was being rejected as they were oversubscribed. This rejection came weeks after he was notified that he had been accepted and only after he advised them that he wished to continue with the group on to Poland and the USSR. He was advised by AECASSOWARY 2 to protest by letter, stating that he had gone to a lot of expense and loss of time from his employment to obtain the necessary tickets and visas. He did protest and received an apology, stating that it was all a mistake and that his application was approved. OLYNYCK was encouraged by the festival committee in Cambridge to try to join the pro-Communist group. He also has backstopped himself with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. AECASSOWARY 2 is in close contact with OLYNYCK regarding the trip to Vienna and the USSR.

2. Significant Developments and Changes

A. A 17-page typewritten letter dated May 1959 was received in a Chicago letter drop from Stanislaw, USSR, in which the writer attacks the INFORMATION BULLETIN and the Ukrainian emigration in great detail.
