WASHINGTON 25

DMS 463
File
Recruitment
Reade

The Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Attention: Mr. W. G. Wyman
Assistant Director

Dear Sir:

The Civil Aeronautics Board has received from Mr. Stefan Dwojak, an alien currently residing in the United States, a request for a waiver of the citizenship requirements of the Civil Air Regulations for the issuance of an airman's certificate.

Before taking action upon such request, the Board desires to have information concerning Mr. Dwojak's conduct prior to entering the United States, as well as subsequent to such entrance, in order to be assured that he is not a person who might owe allegiance to an unfriendly foreign government and in some way take improper advantage of the privileges of his airman's certificate.

Accordingly, the Board would appreciate your conducting a name check of this individual and advising whether or not your files contain any information which might indicate that Mr. Dwojak owes allegiance to such an unfriendly foreign power.

To facilitate the checking of your records, the following information is submitted:

1. Full name: Stefan Dwojak
2. Present address: 223 State St., Elkhart, Indiana
3. Date and place of birth: March 25, 1928, Stanislaw, Ukraina
4. Current citizenship status: Displaced Person
5. Alien registration number: 7258542
6. Date and place of arrival in U.S.: August 23, 1949, New York, N.Y.

The above information is the only information available to this office at this time. We will be glad to secure any additional information you may consider necessary to identify Mr. Dwojak or to facilitate the conduct of a name check.
