

Subject: REVAI, Yulian

SOURCE: A and B

Date: 25 Feb 1964

1. On 17 Feb 1964 Subject visited A and B from 20.00 to 01.00 hrs. His formal purpose was to discuss the matter of eventual establishment of the Institute of Political Sciences at the American Ukrainian Institute in New York, N.Y. (DJUSS' Institute). It was A's impression, however, that he wanted also to learn as much as possible about Metropolitan SLIPYI, in particular what he told her when A saw Metropolitan in Rome, Italy. A explained that she saw Metropolitan for a very short period and he said nothing of interest.

2. Subject informed A about the projected answer-letter to the 34 literary men in Kiev who had written on occasion of Shevchenko's celebrations in Washington, D.D. to Ukrainian immigrants. He was strongly in favor of answering their letter positively. Subject also praised A for her "courageous approach" to the situation in the Ukraine.

3. Subject expressed also willingness to help A in arranging with "Samopomish" (Self-Reliance) an eventual financing of one of her books.
