8 December 1952

To: Chief, SR/3

From: SR/3-W2

Subject: Contact Report with CASSOWARY 15 on 5 December 1952

1. Since CASSOWARY 15 desired to submit a list of expenditures for the month of November a meeting was arranged for 5 December 1952.
2. During this contact the Case Officer once again brought up the problem of individual receipts and stated that a positive and final answer is necessary as soon as possible.
3. CASSOWARY 15 stated that he has to make a trip to New York Monday, 8 December, and will take up this question with CASSOWARY 2. He will also obtain a list of expenditures covering the Study Group. A list of items, e.g., safe, typewriters, etc., for use by the Study Group will also be obtained and transmitted to the Case Officer when CASSOWARY 15 returns from New York.
- ~~4~~ Subject also stated that Mr. DUSHNYCK has arrived in Germany and that ~~DOBRIANSKY, JAREMA~~, and a third unknown person, are also to go to Europe in the near future.
5. CASSOWARY 15 asked whether the Case Officer knew of the recent exfiltration by a young man from LVOV, West Ukraine to VIENNA. He further stated that there was an article in the Ukrainian daily newspaper, Svoboda, covering AP's interview of this man. Since this section had no previous knowledge of this the Case Officer arranged a meeting for 6 December to receive the article from CASSOWARY 15.
