on 4 and 5 February 1957.

1. AECASSOWARY-2 was contacted by the undersigned at the East Side Airlines terminal in New York at 1530 hours on 4 February 1957.

2. The contact was requested by AECASSOWARY-2 via AECASSOWARY-15 who said that AECASSOWARY-2 had several AEREADY candidates available. However on meeting AECASSOWARY-2 in New York, he did not have the information with him and said he was not aware of what the undersigned had planned to discuss.

3. AECASSOWARY-2 was disappointed to learn there was little probability of getting the men he had in mind for the Hot War cadre in for the first phase of the program. He stated that one of the candidates, Roman D. MAC (pronounced Matz), had been available and waiting for about three weeks but that he may have registered for school since no contact with him had been made. AECASSOWARY-2, not being able to give him any definite information, suggested that he not miss the registration deadline for this semester. He could not say for certain whether or not MAC was still available. However, if available, he was very anxious to get MAC into the first phase of the Hot War training.

4. Another candidate whom AECASSOWARY-2 said was presently available is Igor D. SHANKOWSKY. The undersigned told AECASSOWARY-2 that she did not believe the two candidates could be processed for the first phase in time, but she would check with [] and telephone AECASSOWARY-2 on Wednesday.

5. AECASSOWARY-2 stated that AECASSOWARY-4 was in Philadelphia and expected to be back on Tuesday. He requested that the undersigned remain in New York to meet with AECASSOWARY-4 to obtain additional names of candidates who were available. The undersigned agreed to do so and arrangements were made to meet AECASSOWARY-4 on Tuesday at 1300 hours at the Astor Hotel.

6. AECASSOWARY-2 expressed disappointment in the fact that AECASSOWARY-6 would not be utilized under the first phase of the AEREADY

Program. He said it was his understanding, after earlier discussions with "John" and "Peter", that arrangements would be made to have AECASSOWARY-6 brought in from Germany in time for the training. In correspondence received by AECASSOWARY-2 from AECASSOWARY-3, it was revealed that AECASSOWARY-6 was not aware of any interest in him in this regard. The undersigned said she was not familiar with the arrangements made and that she would check with "John" on her return to Washington.

7. The undersigned asked AECASSOWARY-2 for the address of the sanitorium in which L. ORTYNSKY had been hospitalized. AECASSOWARY-2 did not remember the address, but he telephoned from a nearby telephone booth and obtained the information from AECASSOWARY-4. The address was St. Haven, North Dakota. Examining physician was Dr. LOOB and releasing doctor was Dr. TUCKER, I. N. C. Director of Quarantine. This information was obtained by the undersigned for transmittal to [] of the Agency Medical office who is trying to locate the sanitorium physical results on ORTYNSKY. AECASSOWARY-2 stated that ORTYNSKY is now in New York and is working at the Prologue Office. He owes a $3,000 bill to the sanitorium in St. Haven, North Dakota for his hospitalization.

8. AECASSOWARY-2 requested that a meeting be set up for him with "John", either in Washington or New York, to discuss details in connection with the Hot War cadre. The undersigned promised to do so. The meeting was terminated at approximately 1715 hours.

9. Contact was made with AECASSOWARY-4 at 1300 hours, 5 February, at the Astor Hotel in New York City. AECASSOWARY-4 submitted to the undersigned the names of 4 candidates, along with some biographical information on them. He discussed details concerning the availability of the 4 candidates and promised to have additional data available upon request. (See attachment for names of candidates.)

AECASSOWARY-4 said that he personally does not know TARNOVSKY, has never seen him, nor spoken with him. TARNOVSKY is a friend of MAC, who submitted his name to AECASSOWARY-4. AECASSOWARY-4 said that if any interest was expressed in TARNOVSKY he would make efforts to obtain additional information.

11. It was AECASSOWARY-4's opinion that some harm may have been done by the earlier trip he made to Chicago and Detroit in connection with

He felt that the men who were approached for REDSOX candidate interests may have compared notes with the men approached for the Hot War program and that the concensus was that since no candidates had volunteered for the REDSOX activities that conditions of the offer were being improved and the planning changed.
