1. As of 1 July 1958, we shall revert to the old cryptonyms AENOBLE 5 and 6, which were abandoned when the Joint Center came into existence. AENOBLES 5 and 6 are the only cases remaining under the paren project and still have signal plans and code pads extant. Although we do not expect to hear from AENOBLE 6 again, we shall keep the file active until his status is definitely determined through newspaper publicity or other sources.

2. We should appreciate receiving a copy of the current AENOBLE Project Outline.
