Report No. 16

Sep 7, 1960

From 10.00 till 12.00 hrs I was in the Vatican Museums. When I came to the Museum, there arrived a group of Russian tourists, about 40 persons. They were simply dressed, most of them were men. I heard one, who was better dressed, saying: "Do not remain behind, keep all together". They went up by elevator. As I still had to buy the tickets, I lost the contact with them and later I was not able to find them in the Museum any more.

Soviet sportsmen visited the Museum to-day, too. Most of them were weight-lifters and boxers. Their faces were scratched, there were blue spots on them. I was together with them in a room, where people are allowed to smoke. Rut when they started making photographs, I took off, because I did not want to be photographed with them. They were not alone. There were some 3 - 4 officials with them.

I did not see any small groups of tourists or single Russian tourists.

After the lunch I attended an equestrian event. Russians did not participate in it. I heard other spectators saying, that the Russian sportsman fell from his horse and had to be brought to hospital. In the evening I was at the Olympic Village, but had no success.

In the morning I was in the Vatican Museums, in the afternoon in the Collosseum. Neither there nor here did I see Russian tourists.

Same like yesterday.

In the morning I was again in the Museum. I met a small group of Russians, 5 persons. They all were well dressed. It came out, that they were Russians from Germany. They do not think at all about meeting their fellow countrymen here. "Let us be further away from the sin", they said. And so I had again no success. Simply incredible!

In the evening I was at the Village. I hoped to have luck and meet that MUIZNIEKS. But unfortunately this was not the case. They and the Italians had already left for PAIAZZO D. SPORT in EUR. I somehow managed to get there too. I bought a ticket at the black market price. I was not able to find MUIZNIEKS in the large crowd of people after the game.

So I did not achieve anything and with the greatest difficulty (that terrible Italian bus communication:) I returned home. I was in a very bad mood indeed.

This was the end of my unsuccessful mission.
