was scheduled on 31 October. By advance agreement all employees cast blank ballots as a manifestation of continuing discontent with prevailing policies. When this occurred the 30 was already deeply involved in the criminal proceedings against the publisher and the editorial staff of Der Spiegel and Dr. Brueckner was absent on the first phase of a ela-week trip to the Middle East to arrange the security measures for the state visit of President Luebke to Pakistan, Thailand and India.

SECRET

3. In the past many SG staffers have been critical of Dr. Brueckner's practice of selecting the choice foreign trips, arising in connection with the SO's security mission, for himself. The SG was brought into the Spiegel Case approximately five days before the beginning of his trip to the Middle East and the first arrests were made the evening before his departure. Feeling ran high in the SG that he should have cancelled the trip and sent a subordinate in his stead, This feeling was intensified when the SC began to draw press orlicism for its role in the affair which some of the more extreme articles likened to the Gestapo, Although every phase of the action against Der Spiegel was carried out under the immediate supervision of the Office of the Chief Federal Prosecutor (GBA) with one or more officials of the latter establishment present at the scene of each action, the SU nevertheless suffered from lack of the type of leadership which only Dr. Brusckner with his legal training and background could provide. This is not to imply that Dr. Brueckner's presence would have affected the GEA's handling of the case in any of its fundamental aspects; but his absence at such a critical time, when viewed against his earlier failure to obtain the desired T/O grade increases, tended to compound the conviction on the part of many of his subordinates that he lacked oncern for their interests.

4. Many of the SG staffers view the handling of the Spiegel Affair with mixed emotions. Taking the purely bureaucratic view, they are convinced that the evidence at hand clearly just fies the action taken against the magazine. Indeed they claim to be appalled at the latter's information procurement techniques which they describe as more similar to the methods of a Soviet Bloc intelligence service than of a Western press organ. According to SC officials abundant evidence of bribery and blackmail by Der Spiegel was developed, but legal technicalities may very likely proclude its introduction in court. Many of the SG staffers feel that it makes little sense for them to continue their efforts against low level agents of Eastern Intelligence Services 1f the practices of Der Spiegel are to be tolerated. On the other hand they find the actions egainst the sources of Der Spiegel, in some instances, to be distasteful, not only because some of the vioting are basically decent people, but also because the standards employed by the GBA in moving against the sources are not uniform and are apparently colored by political considerations. For example, many SC officials have expressed the opinion that, if iniform standards were applied proceedings equinat virtually all key FDP parliamentary personalities would have to be initiated automatically, (Comment: It is understood, of course, that such action would not be possible unless parliamentary immunity were first lifted in each individual case; this would require special perliamentary approval.) This situation has given rise to confusion and doubt in the minds of a number of SU staffers and moved several of them, including Theo Sasvecks, Chief of the Investigations Branch, in early December to offer their resignations. It has not been determined by OCA whether these resignations have been accepted, but it appears doubiful that this action will result in their actually leaving the SG.

5. Thus, upon his return from the Middle East, Dr. Brueckner found his organization to be virtually in a state of chaos. His entire attention since his return has been directed toward restoring its order and morale. He has spent considerable time conferring with key officials of the BKA, and, necording to one report, he was called to the Interior Ministry to explain his failure to cancel his trip when he learned of the impending action against Der Spiegel. Meanwhile, open and frank criticism of Bruschner by his subordinates appears to continue unshated.
