Project TPEMBER
Communications Annex

PART I - INTRODUCTION

1. The project was approved 21 December 1949 and no communications support was required at that time, since it was a psychological operation in East Germany.
2. The project is now being amended to include a paramilitary apparatus which will require support from the Office of Communications.

PART II - COMMUNICATIONS ELECTRONICS REQUIREMENTS

1. The present project outline is a general enabling project, with no specific requirements as to equipment, signal plans, or ciphers, but only the requirement of a general statement of support.

PART III - OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS COMMITMENTS

1. The Office of Communications is capable of supporting this project, and will furnish necessary support when required.
2. Specific commitments will not be made at this time, but will be made when the outlines of sub-projects or sub-operations are submitted stating the communications requirements and problems.
3. The specific support and supply of equipment, signal plans and ciphers will be listed as a Communications Annex to each sub-project under the general enabling Project TPEMBER.
