TOP SECRET

Copy No.

o. 1

(b)(3)

(b)(3)

CENTRAL

INTELLIGENCE

BULLETIN

(b)(3)

TOP SECRET

•			(b)(3)
• .	TOP SECRET	1	-
	Congo: The 2,300-man addition to India's UN contingent has disembarked at Dar es Salaam, Tanganyika, and the first planeloads of troops are expected shortly in Katanga. In view of Tshombe's warnings against the reinforcement of UN forces in Katanga, Hammarskjold is considering sending UN military commander McKeown or his deputy to assume personal command of UN forces there.		(b)(3)
			(b)(3)
			-
			• •
			÷ -
			-
	Angola-Portugal: Terrorist activity in the area north of Luanda is continuing in the face of a steady Portuguese military build-up. According to the Portuguese news agency, "thousands" of Africans attacked a village about 100 miles northeast of Luanda but were driven off with heavy casualties by the small garrison there. Disorders have also been reported in Cabinda.		- - - - - (b)(1) -
	Luanda is continuing in the face of a steady Portuguese military build-up. According to the Portuguese news agency, "thousands" of Africans attacked a village about 100 miles northeast of Luanda but were driven off with heavy casualties by the small garrison there. Disorders have also been reported in Cabinda.		(b)(1)
	Luanda is continuing in the face of a steady Portuguese military build-up. According to the Portuguese news agency, "thousands" of Africans attacked a village about 100 miles northeast of Luanda but were driven off with heavy casualties by the small garrison there. Disorders have also been reported	(b)(1)	(b)(1) -
	Luanda is continuing in the face of a steady Portuguese military build-up. According to the Portuguese news agency, "thousands" of Africans attacked a village about 100 miles northeast of Luanda but were driven off with heavy casualties by the small garrison there. Disorders have also been reported in Cabinda. the residents of Angola were very nervous and that additional troops were being dispatched. Provincial authorities are calling for volunteers and are beginning to		(b)(1) - (b)(1) (b)(3)
	Luanda is continuing in the face of a steady Portuguese military build-up. According to the Portuguese news agency, "thousands" of Africans attacked a village about 100 miles northeast of Luanda but were driven off with heavy casualties by the small garrison there. Disorders have also been reported in Cabinda. the residents of Angola were very nervous and that additional troops were being dispatched. Provincial authorities are calling for volunteers and are beginning to		(b)(1)
	Luanda is continuing in the face of a steady Portuguese military build-up. According to the Portuguese news agency, "thousands" of Africans attacked a village about 100 miles northeast of Luanda but were driven off with heavy casualties by the small garrison there. Disorders have also been reported in Cabinda. the residents of Angola were very nervous and that additional troops were being dispatched. Provincial authorities are calling for volunteers and are beginning to mobilize reservists. In Portugal, Salazar has been reshuffling the military supporters of ex-Defense Minister Moniz, following the cabinet		(b)(1) (b)(3)
	Luanda is continuing in the face of a steady Portuguese military build-up. According to the Portuguese news agency, "thousands" of Africans attacked a village about 100 miles northeast of Luanda but were driven off with heavy casualties by the small garrison there. Disorders have also been reported in Cabinda. the residents of Angola were very nervous and that additional troops were being dispatched. Provincial authorities are calling for volunteers and are beginning to mobilize reservists. In Portugal, Salazar has been reshuffling the military supporters of ex-Defense Minister Moniz, following the cabinet		(b)(1) (b)(3)