The Daily Brief of the CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE BULLETIN is produced by the Director of Central Intelligence in consultation with representatives of departments and agencies of the United States Intelligence Board. Back-up material is produced by CIA with as much consultation with other departments and agencies as is practicable. When, because of the time factor, consultation with the department or agency of primary concern is not practicable, the brief will be produced by CIA and marked with an asterisk.

(b)(3)

Interpretations of intelligence information in this publication represent immediate and preliminary views which are subject to modification in the light of further information and more complete analysis.

Certain intelligence items in this publication may be designated specifically for no further dissemination. Other intelligence items may be disseminated further, but only on a need-to-know basis.

WARNING

This document contains classified information affecting the national security of the United States within the meaning of the espionage laws, US Code Title 18, Sections 793, 794, and 798. The law prohibits its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to any unauthorized persons, as well as its use in any manner prejudicial to the safety or interest of the United States or for the benefit of any foreign government to the detriment of the United States.

Angola: (Angolan nationalist leader Holden Roberto faces increasing disaffection within his military organization.)

(Roberto's Western-oriented Union of Angolan Peoples (UPA) has failed to provide sufficient food and munitions for approximately 1,000 men who have trained in the Congo at Thysville, 90 miles southwest of Leopoldville. The shortages may demoralize Roberto's militants to the point of making them more receptive to union with the rival Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA).)

(The UPA's failure to find transportation for approximately 100 tons of Algerian arms stored in Tunis has lent credence to an MPLA rumor that Algerian Premier Ben Bella has repossessed the arms and intends to switch his support to the MPLA. In spite of the Adoula government's repeated promises of weapons, few have been received.)
