"The CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE BULLETIN is produced by the Director of Central Intelligence to meet his responsibilities for providing current intelligence bearing on issues of national security to the President, the National Security Council, and other senior government officials. It is produced in consultation with the Departments of State and Defense. When, because of the time factor, adequate consultation with the department of primary concern is not feasible, items or portions thereof are produced by CIA and marked with an asterisk."

Interpretations of intelligence information in this publication represent immediate and preliminary views which are subject to modification in the light of further information and more complete analysis.

Certain intelligence items in this publication may be designated specifically for no further dissemination. Other intelligence items may be disseminated further, but only on a need-to-know basis.

*Haiti: [The rebel group in the mountains 15 miles northeast of Saltrou has grown to 50 men and may soon be reinforced.]

[redacted] trained and well-armed Haitians are ready to cross the border into Haiti from the Dominican Republic and join the group already in the mountains. The Dominican high command recently ordered its border garrisons to permit Haitian exiles to cross the border unmolested, and several high-ranking Dominican officers are ready to provide the rebels with money, weapons, and training camps.]

(b)(1)

[redacted] additional rebels--who allegedly received "training with Cubans" in Puerto Rico and Miami--are ready to join those already in the country. There are no indications that any Haitian exiles have been trained on US territory. However, should President Duvalier receive this "evidence," he will undoubtedly use it to try to implicate the US in the Saltrou incursion.]
