The CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE BULLETIN is produced by the Director of Central Intelligence to meet his responsibilities for providing current intelligence bearing on issues of national security to the President, the National Security Council, and other senior government officials. It is produced in consultation with the Departments of State and Defense. When, because of the time factor, adequate consultation with the department of primary concern is not feasible, items or portions thereof are produced by the Central Intelligence Agency and enclosed in brackets.

Interpretations of intelligence information in this publication represent immediate and preliminary views which are subject to modification in the light of further information and more complete analysis.

Certain intelligence items in this publication may be designated specifically for no further dissemination. Other intelligence items may be disseminated further, but only on a need-to-know basis.

* * * *

PORTUGUESE GUINEA: The assassination late Saturday of insurgent leader Amilcar Cabral will be a severe blow to the movement that has been trying since 1963 to wrest control of Portuguese Guinea from Portugal. Cabral, an able leader who won increased foreign support for his movement in recent years, was killed in Conakry, Guinea, where his exile headquarters is located. Guinean President Toure blamed Cabral's murder on Portuguese agents, but [redacted] dissidents within Cabral's own organization were responsible. (SECRET NO FOREIGN DISSEM)
