

9 January 1981

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Obvious "opening by mistake" of highly classified material addressed to History Staff, CIA.

1. A package was delivered from the JFK Library to the CIA History Staff 7 January 1981 with a pink courier's receipt attached; it was duly signed and returned to sender.

2. On ~~the~~ opening the outside envelope, the ~~inside~~ inside envelope had a note attached stating "FYI: opened by mistake by pouch room OG/PCDI/Hqs". The contents had obviously been rearranged (or not in order according to the library listing enclosed with the documents.)

3. Upon checking each document and page (with the listing), it was discovered there were no documents missing; however, the fact that when this envelope left the JFK Library it had been directed specifically to [redacted], Historical Office, Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C. and should not have been opened by anyone other than the addressee.

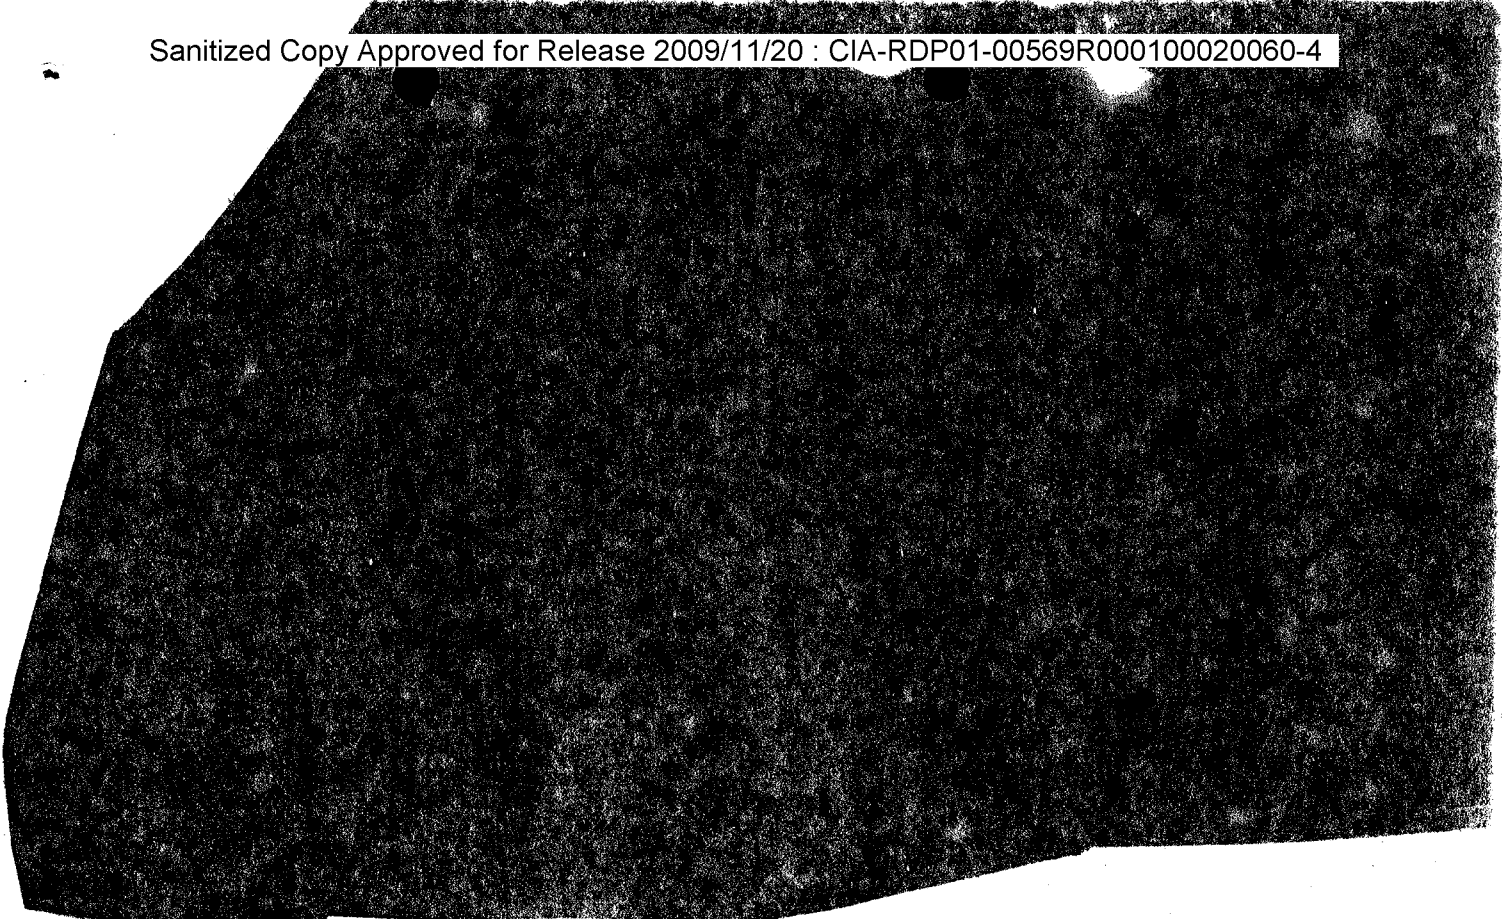

4. Attached are copies of the address on the inside envelope, and also the note by OG/PCDI Hqs.
