Dear Mr. Lennon,

Mrs. Turner and I wish to express our thanks for the lovely flowers, fruit and cake which were waiting in our room when we visited the Homestead last Friday. We did appreciate your thoughtfulness and generosity.

This was my first return to the Homestead since I spent New Years of 1946 with you. I found the atmosphere just as delightful and relaxing and the service just as elegant as it was those many years ago. Thank you for a delightful stay.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear John,

I have indeed heard of your fine organization and recognize many old friends among your active and graduate members.

As you can imagine, my schedule is quite tight during these first few weeks of my new assignment. I will not be able to make the entire meeting, however, Mrs. Turner and I would like to accept the invitation to attend the black tie dinner on the evening of 13 May. My staff will be in touch to work out specifics.

The Honorable J. Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

You may have learned about The Business Council from your predecessors at the Central Intelligence Agency, and I feel sure that a quick glance through the enclosed membership list will bring to mind many friends and acquaintances.

The Chairman of the Council, John deButts, has asked that I extend his personal invitation to you and Mrs. Turner to be guests of The Business Council when it meets in May at The Homestead in Hot Springs, Virginia. Over the years, it has developed into almost standard operating procedure that the current Director of Central Intelligence be invited to our Hot Springs meetings, and I must admit that most of them have attended faithfully and have told me how much they have enjoyed the sessions and how valuable the discussions were. Dick Helms, one of our long-standing regulars, could, I feel sure, fill you in further if you wanted to touch base with him.

The meeting officially opens with an informal reception and dinner-dance on the evening of Thursday, May 12. On Friday, May 13, there is a morning business session for the men, and a black-tie dinner in the evening, attended also by the ladies. On Saturday, May 14, the morning session is repeated, with official adjournment of the meeting at about Noon on that day.

The rest of the time at The Homestead is completely unstructured and many of our guests take the opportunity to relax and enjoy the many recreational facilities at the hotel. We have programs exclusively for the ladies, if they wish to participate, and everyone seems to have a thoroughly enjoyable time.

Hot Springs is about 200 miles from Washington, D. C., and if you would be interested in flying on one of our cor-

If your calendar is such that you could not be with us for the entire meeting, you and Mrs. Turner would both be welcomed for however long you could fit into your schedule. An early indication of your plans, even if only tentative, would, of course, be of great help to us in our planning.

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20006

LADIES' PROGRAMS

BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

There will be an informal tournament in the Writing Room, adjoining the Tower Lounge, on Friday afternoon, May 13th, beginning at 2:00 p.m. The play will run until about 4:30 p.m. and favors will be awarded.

COFFEE HOUR

Coffee, tea and pastries will be available for the ladies in the Tower Lounge on Friday and Saturday mornings at 9:30 a.m.

GOLF

There will be prizes for the ladies, without an entry fee, using the Caloway System to determine the winners. It is a proven and workable system and it makes all scores very close, tending to favor neither the low nor the high handicap player.

All cards for complete rounds of play on any of the courses on Friday only should be filled out legibly and turned in to the Council staff in the Valley Room immediately upon completion of play. If the cards are turned in all at one time just prior to the dinner, there simply is not enough time or manpower to make the calculations and announce the prizes that evening.

It is of the utmost importance that starting times be arranged in advance. As the Upper Cascades is a favorite with the ladies, we reserve starting times for 16 players (4 foursomes) at convenient hours on both Friday and Saturday mornings. If you want to make use of these times, call the Upper Cascades starter, mention The Business Council, tell him when you want to play, and he will make every effort to accommodate you.

MORNING PROGRAMS

On Friday and Saturday mornings, special programs exclusively for the ladies will be presented in the Homestead Theatre on the lower level. These will begin on both days at 10:30 a.m. and the full details are listed in the social events schedule.

TENNIS

There will be informal competition for the ladies on Friday morning. All those who wish to participate are asked to sign up with the tennis professional at The Homestead, Mr. Pat Haynes, before 10 o'clock on Friday morning, May 13th. There will not be a tournament on Saturday morning, May 14th, but tennis courts will be held in the name of The Business Council for those ladies who would like to play.
