Dear Admiral Turner:

I was very proud to be chosen to introduce you today to the Navy League and to the Houston Club membership. I will be forever grateful to our mutual friend, [redacted] for making the initial contact with you. I know that we learned more about the difficulties of your job and I hope that you derived some sense of support from the audience in knowing that they support the strongest possible intelligence apparatus for the protection of our great Country.

If ever we can be of assistance to you in the Houston area, please let us know.

Sincerely yours,

George Strake Jr
