Dear Bob,

Many thanks for the time you gave to me last Friday late in your day. Our conversation was most helpful and stimulating to me. I stand in admiration of your approaches to personnel management. I have come back home to ask a lot of questions about why we can't do things more like you! I would most appreciate being able to follow up on our discussion by sending my Director of Personnel up to talk with your people at some time convenient to them.

Again, many thanks. It was certainly great to have a chance to visit.

Yours,
