

Approved For Release 2009/04/20 : CIA-RDP05T00644R000301050003-3

SUN-SENTINEL, Monday, April 7, 1980

Announcing An Extraordinary Program
of the Palm Beach Round Table in Palm Beach Thurs. April 17

DIRECTOR OF THE
FBI

Tel. 655-5266
For Info

Judge William
WEBSTER
and
Admiral Stansfield TURNER

with Moderator Marvin Stone
Editor U.S. News & World Report

DIRECTOR OF THE
CIA

Approved For Release 2009/04/20 : CIA-RDP05T00644R000301050003-3

Palm Beach Round Table

IN AN EXTRAORDINARY FINALE PROGRAM OF THE 1980 REGULAR SEASON

THURSDAY, APRIL 17

Paramount Theatre, Palm Beach

3 P.M.

THE DIRECTOR OF THE
FBI

Judge William Webster

He shucked the hometown comforts of St. Louis and a lifetime appointment as a federal appellate judge to enter rough and tumble Washington Feb. 23, 1978, to take command of the 20,000 employee Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

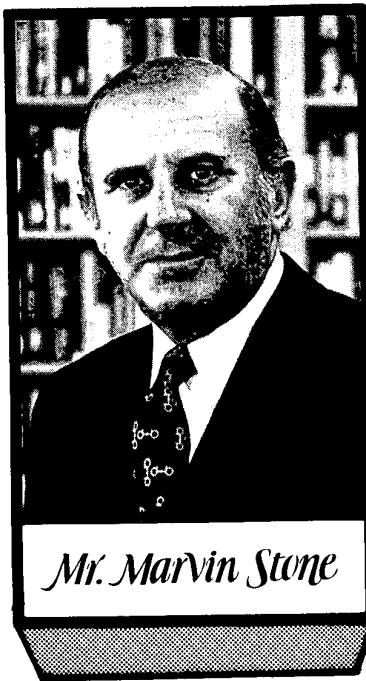

As a lawyer and Judge, Judge Webster had built a reputation for integrity, fairness and brilliance. These qualities, and more, have served him outstandingly. His superb leadership has the FBI applauded at home and earning new recognition and esteem around the world.

Native of St. Louis, BA from Amherst College, Juris doctor Washington University Law School. U. S. Naval Reserve in WWII and Korean War. In private law practice in St. Louis for 20 years including a term as U. S. Attorney for Eastern Missouri.

Appointed Judge U. S. District Court, 1970; elevated to the United States Court of Appeals in 1973. Often honored for distinguished service. Married to former Missilla Lane and they are parents of three children.

To moderate this most outstanding program

THE EDITOR OF THE DISTINGUISHED
U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT

Mr. Marvin Stone

35 years in national and international journalism covering every phase of news. Syndicated columnist, author and contributor to leading publications. Joined U.S. News & World Report in 1960, named editor in 1976. Writes magazine's weekly editorial. Has covered four wars, interviewed scores of world leaders including Presidents Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon. Accompanied Pres. Ford to China, Pres. Carter to Europe and Asia. Traveled over 250,000 miles filing dispatches from 35 countries. Honors include Holmes Award, and two Freedom Foundation Awards. He and wife, Sydel, have three children.

THE DIRECTOR OF THE
CIA

Admiral Stansfield Turner

Took charge of The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) after a brilliant career in the Navy — from Rhodes Scholar to Pentagon "whiz kid", from innovative Commander of the Naval War College to Commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's southern flank. He was in that post September 1, 1975, with rank of Admiral, until named to head the CIA on March 2, 1977.

Old troubles and new problems have plagued the agency so critical to the security of this nation. Controls imposed on the CIA more severe than on any intelligence operation in the world. Admiral Turner says it is necessary to grasp the revolutionary changes in the business of spying. It will be intensely interesting to hear the man who deals with frustrations, unbelievable difficulties, electronic wizardry and human snooping as he serves as America's eyes and ears around the world.

Native, Highland Park, Ill. At Amherst College two years when named to U.S. Naval Academy. Graduate Class of '37. He and wife Patricia have two married children.

BOX OFFICE OPENS 2 P.M.; DOORS OPEN 2:15. ALL TICKETS $7.00

THIS IS PART OF THEIR PAID-UP SEASON FOR ALL ROUND TABLE MEMBERS

FROM 2:40 TO 3 - SPECIAL MUSICAL TREAT LIVE - SONNY ARTHUR'S ORCHESTRA

PUBLIC INVITED. ADVANCE TICKETS, PBRT, 715 S. FLAGLER DR., WPB; PH. 655-5266

Palm Beach Round Table

IN AN EXTRAORDINARY FINALE PROGRAM OF THE 1980 REGULAR SEASON

THURSDAY, APRIL 17

Paramount Theatre, Palm Beach

3 P.M.

THE DIRECTOR OF THE

FBI

Judge William Webster

He shucked the hometown comforts of St. Louis and a lifetime appointment as a federal appellate judge to enter rough and tumble Washington Feb. 23, 1978, to take command of the 20,000 employee Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

As a lawyer and Judge, Judge Webster had built a reputation for integrity, fairness and brilliance. These qualities, and more, have served him outstandingly. His superb leadership has the FBI applauded at home and earning new recognition and esteem around the world.

Native of St. Louis, BA from Amherst College, Juris doctor Washington University Law School. U. S. Naval Reserve in WWII and Korean War. In private law practice in St. Louis for 20 years including a term as U. S. Attorney for Eastern Missouri.

To moderate this most outstanding program

THE EDITOR OF THE DISTINGUISHED
U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT

Mr. Marvin Stone

35 years in national and international journalism covering every phase of news. Syndicated columnist, author and contributor to leading publications. Joined U.S. News & World Report in 1960, named editor in 1976. Writes magazine's weekly editorial. Has covered four wars, interviewed scores of world leaders including Presidents Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon. Accompanied Pres. Ford to China, Pres.

THE DIRECTOR OF THE

CIA

Admiral Stansfield Turner

Took charge of The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) after a brilliant career in the Navy — from Rhodes Scholar to Pentagon "whiz kid", from innovative Commander of the Naval War College to Commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's southern flank. He was in that post September 1, 1975, with rank of Admiral, until named to head the CIA on March 2, 1977.

Old troubles and new problems have plagued the agency so critical to the security of this nation. Controls imposed on the CIA more severe than on any intelligence operation in the world. Admiral Turner says it is necessary to grasp the revolutionary changes in the business of spying. It will be intensely interesting to hear the man who deals with frustrations, unbelievable difficulties, electronic wizardry and human snooping as he serves as America's eyes and ears around the