BREAKERS DRESS CODE

A fine tradition at The Breakers is to adhere to the hotel dress code. The following guide might be helpful in preparing for your visit.

BREAKFAST:

Sportswear is the customary attire. Ladies wear skirts, Bermuda shorts or slacks.

Gentlemen are required to wear jackets or coat sweaters.

Tennis outfits are acceptable but swim attire is definitely not allowed in the breakfast areas.

LUNCHEON:

For poolside luncheon, guests wear a top garment over swimsuits - pool cover-ups for the ladies and cabana tops or shirts for the gentlemen. Please wear footwear inside the Beach Club. Jackets are not required of gentlemen at the Beach Club or Golf Club.

DINNER:

Ladies wear dresses or evening suits.

Gentlemen must wear jackets and ties after 7 P.M. nightly.

No exceptions are made to this dress code. On Wednesday and Saturday Evenings (January 1st -June 1st) guests customarily wear formal or semi-formal attire.

MAIN LOBBY AREA:

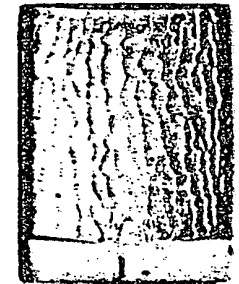

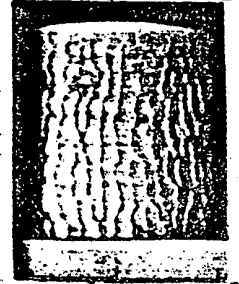

Beach cover-up, bathing robes, and footwear are required in all lobby areas.

Facilities are available at the Beach Club for changing into swimwear.

YOUNGER SET:

The above rules also pertain to young ladies and gentlemen. (T-shirts or tank tops or cutoff slacks are not approved attire.)

Jacket and Ties are required in the lobby after 7 P.M.

The Breakers is an ocean front resort offering the seclusion of expansive landscaped grounds and a beautiful private beach — plus the convenience of being within walking distance of all Palm Beach activities.

Accommodations include 600 beautifully decorated rooms and suites. Each has a magnificent view overlooking either the ocean or colorful gardens. All have air-conditioning, color television and direct dial telephones.

Dining facilities include the Florentine Dining Room. Luncheon, snack and beverage service are available at the Beach and Golf Clubs. Music and dancing nightly in the Florentine Dining Room and Alcazar Lounge.

Two private 18-hole golf courses. The Breakers Ocean Course is conveniently located adjacent to the hotel. The Breakers West Course, just minutes away. Each has its own clubhouse with food and beverage service, its own pro shop, putting green, driving range.

Two swimming pools: a salt-water outdoor pool and fresh-water indoor pool. Protected ocean swimming from private beach. Cabanas and lockers available at the Beach Club.

Other sports facilities on the grounds include 12 tennis courts, lawn bowling, putting green, bicycles, shuffleboard, croquet, horseshoes.

Supervised children's playground. Swimming, tennis and golf instruction for young guests can be arranged.
