Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

I was most pleased to learn through Bill Webster that you are willing to appear before the St. Louis Round Table in November*. Hopefully you and Bill will be able to coordinate a date so that you can both be with us on that occasion.

The Round Table is a group of 150 St. Louis men which meets on occasions each year to hear notable speakers. The meeting is black tie and private. There is no press coverage. We convene for cocktails at 7:00 p.m. (C.S.T.) and dinner is at 7:45 p.m. at the Deer Creek Club. If there are any male guests you would like to have at the dinner, please let me know.

The normal practice is for the speaker to devote 20 to 25 minutes to his presentation and then accept questions for another 20 minutes to a half hour.

If you will advise us of your travel plans, we will be most happy to make hotel reservations. I would also appreciate your furnishing my office with biographical data for proper introduction at the dinner.

Please let my office know the date that is most acceptable to you. We are truly honored to have you join us and are looking forward to what I know will be a most enjoyable and informative evening.

Sincerely,

Zane Barnes

*Suggested dates:
November 17, 18, 19, 24 and 25.
