4. [redacted] Talked to Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Special Subcommittee on Internal Security, with regard to the request by the Subcommittee for a report on S. 2988 from the Agency. I noted that we had already gone over this bill carefully with him and would prefer not to submit a report. Sourwine said he would not insist on a report and noted that in this morning's hearing Senator Eastland had stated that he would not keep the record open for Executive Branch reports which had not been submitted by the end of the hearing. Sourwine regarded this as an open invitation not to file a report. I told him that under these circumstances we would not plan to file a report.
