8. [] LIAISON Received a call from Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who once again asked about the briefing he had previously requested for Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and himself [] I told Childs I still did not have an answer but would do my best to get one for him today.

9. [] LIAISON Called Mike Epstein, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to ask him about a question Senator William Hathaway (D., Maine) had asked during Admiral Stansfield Turner's confirmation hearings. I wanted to know if, when Senator Hathaway asked if the Agency would support a proposal to require advance Committee approval of "covert activities," he was restricting this latter phrase to covert action, or whether he also meant to include sensitive intelligence collection. Epstein said he did not know.

10. [] AGENCY VISIT In attempting to arrange a breakfast/briefing for the new members of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, I contacted the following people: Holly Brown, on the staff of Senator John Chafee (R., R.I.); Frances Cody, on the staff of Senator James Pearson (R., Kans.); and Kendall Stewart, on the staff of Senator Malcolm Wallop (R., Wyo.). Senators Chafee and Wallop have tentatively scheduled 11 March to come to Headquarters for the breakfast/briefing. Senator Pearson is tentatively scheduled for 18 March. I also called David Winstead, on the staff of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.), and Florence Ross, on the staff of Senator Daniel P. Moynihan (D.-L., N.Y.), both of whom will call me back to set a date.
