MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Logistics

FROM :

STAT

SUBJECT : Bureau of the Budget Bulletin No. 67-10 dated
June 5, 1967

REFERENCE : MR dtd 2 Dec 75 fr OLC, subject: Meeting with Staff Members of Joint Committee on Printing
re Federal Depository Library Program

1. The attached Bureau of the Budget issuance cites Title 44 U.S. Code as authority for the Gift and Exchange Division of the Library of Congress (LC) to collect copies of books, pamphlets, maps, et al, from all Government agencies for gift and exchange purposes. Deputy Director, Geographic and Cartographic Research, during a recent visit to LC had this matter brought to his attention, apparently with the observation that CIA was not complying. He forwarded the attached to the Printing & Photography Division.

2. In view of the position taken by the Office of Legislative Counsel with regard to requirements of the Federal Depository Library Program (noted in the reference), it is unlikely that any action need be taken on this newly surfaced requirement. CIA participation in the Document Expediting (DOCEX) Program was interpreted as sufficient compliance with the code establishing the requirements for the Federal Depository Library Program. It should also fit in this case, especially as the DOCEX Program is administered by the Gift and Exchange Division of LC.

3. Mr. Eisenbeiss, Director, Central Reference Service, brought this to my attention and concurs in this interpretation. also concurs.

BULLETIN NO. 67-10

June 5, 1967

TO THE HEADS OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ESTABLISHMENTS

SUBJECT: Agency publications required by the Library of Congress

1. Purpose. This Bulletin invites agency attention to statutory provisions requiring that copies of certain Government publications be supplied to the Library of Congress for official use and for international exchange.
2. Background. The Librarian of Congress has advised that the Library of Congress is not receiving copies of all required Government publications. He has requested that agencies provide the Library of Congress with copies of Government publications produced by authorized departmental and field printing plants and those procured commercially, pursuant to the provisions of law set forth in Sections 139 and 139a of Title 44, United States Code. A listing of the authorized departmental and field printing plants may be found in the Government Printing and Binding Regulations published by the Joint Committee on Printing of the Congress.
3. Publications required. The Library of Congress needs four copies of each book, pamphlet, manual, journal, map and chart, magazine, periodical, report, study, poster, and regulation, opinion, and decision of Federal agencies having intra-agency or extra-agency significance, which is printed or otherwise produced by agency printing plants or procured commercially as contract field printing, including microforms.
4. Exclusions. The statutory provisions referred to in paragraph 2 do not apply to confidential matter, blank forms, and circular letters not of a public character. In addition, the Library of Congress does not wish to receive drawings and specifications of individual patents, daily weather maps, Federal and military standards and specifications, press releases, routine administrative directives, reprints of articles from trade periodicals and books, or announcements of meetings and programs. Copies of publications produced by the Government Printing Office in Washington or at its Field Service Offices and publications procured by agencies on waiver by the Government Printing Office are furnished currently by the Government Printing Office. Arrangements to receive these publications directly have been made by the Library of Congress with the Government Printing Office and they are therefore not within the scope of this Bulletin.

Add address to mailing list.
Send four (4) copies each.

5. Submission of materials. The publications to be supplied are those produced after the date of this Bulletin and should be addressed as follows:

Exchange and Gift Division (non-GPO)
Library of Congress
Washington, D. C. 20540

6. Revisions. The categories of publications desired may be revised by the Librarian of Congress after a review of the materials received. In such an event the agency or agencies will be advised directly by the Library of Congress.

Regulations for printing documents for Congress in two or more editions; printing of full number and allotment of full quota

The Joint Committee on Printing is authorized and directed to establish rules and regulations, from time to time, which shall be observed by the Public Printer, whereby public documents and reports printed for Congress, or either House thereof, may be printed in two or more editions. Instead of one, to meet the public requirements. In no case shall the aggregate of said editions exceed the number of copies otherwise authorized. Nothing herein shall operate to obstruct the printing of the full number of any document or report, or the allotment of the full quota to Senators and Representatives, as otherwise authorized, when a legitimate demand for the full complement is known to exist. (Mar. 30, 1906. No. 14, 34 Stat. 826.)

§ 137. Reprinting bills, laws, and reports from committees not exceeding fifty pages.

The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives may order the reprinting in a number not exceeding one thousand copies of any pending bill or resolution, or any public law not exceeding fifty pages, or any report from any committee or congressional commission on pending legislation not accompanied by testimony or exhibits or other appendices and not exceeding fifty pages, when the supply shall have been exhausted. The Public Printer shall require each requisition for reprinting to cite the specific authority of law for its execution. (Jan. 12, 1895, ch. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, ch. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

§ 138. Senate and House documents and reports for Department of State.

The Public Printer is authorized and directed to print, in addition to the usual number, and furnish the Department of State with twenty copies of each Senate and House of Representative document and report. (Feb. 7, 1896, No. 14, 29 Stat. 463.)
