1. Membership. Mr. [REDACTED] has replaced [REDACTED] as a regular member of the Joint Training Committee. [REDACTED] will attend meetings as a non-voting member in the interests of assessment.

25X1A9a

2. Intelligence Orientation Course. Mr. [REDACTED] circulated a draft of subjects proposed to be taught in the four-week IOC which will replace the BIC in September. The proposal was accepted, with the proviso that the Committee will again consider the matter when a schedule is worked up which indicates the time to be devoted to each subject and problem. It was also suggested that the methods of teaching and testing Observation and Description which will be developed by Miss [REDACTED] be reviewed during August by Mr. [REDACTED]

7. FBI Liaison. Instead of delegating FBI liaison to Mr. [REDACTED] 25X1A9a [REDACTED] as an additional duty, Mr. [REDACTED] will continue to perform this function. OPC is to investigate the OSO system established for requesting approval for students to attend FBI language courses.

25X1A9a

8. Basic Intelligence Course No. XX. Upon OPC's request for determination of the number of its students who could be entered in BIC XX,
Mr. [REDACTED] asked that the question be postponed until 29 June.

9. Future Agenda. The matter of recruitment and establishment of joint T/O's for covert training, administrative training, operations training, and training research and services units should be considered at an early meeting. Mr. [REDACTED] suggested re covert trainers that OPC pursue the plan of recruiting specialists.
