THRU : Acting Chief, Plans and Research Staff
FROM : Chief, Orientation and Briefing Division

DATE: 17 December 1953

SUBJECT: Report for Week - 1200 hrs., 10 December to 1200 hrs. 17 December 1953

I. INDOCTRINATION

1. Today, Thursday, 17 December 1953, a total of 34 persons attended the weekly Indoctrination Program. The audience consisted of 23 new persons, [redacted] Chief Instructor, BIC(CS), and his assistant, Mr. Charles [redacted] the following 6 Intelligence Analysts from the Targets Division of the Directorate of Intelligence, U.S. Air Force:

- Margaret D. Linzel
William T. Staats
Donald B. Stough
Jack D. Strong
Samuel S. Whitt
Frank L. Wood

and the following 3 individuals from the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, Department of the Army:

- Miss Beth L. Drake, Military Research Specialist, Technical Section, Collection and Dissemination Division
Dr. D. E. V. Henderson, Military Intelligence Research Specialist, Area Resources Branch, Production Division
Mr. William C. Baker, Military Intelligence Research Specialist, Special Research Branch, Production Division

- 2. Audience evaluation: Very poor; far below average.
3. The Chief, OB/D, received word that the Inspector General who was scheduled to attend the Indoctrination Program on 17 December, instead will attend on 7 January 1954.
4. Spoke to [redacted] Chief, Personnel Procurement Division, to get his reaction on the flow of new persons into the Agency so as to measure workload at future Indoctrination Programs. [redacted] stated that he expected the flow of incoming people to drop to a trickle by March and also remarked that the persons now coming in have been in the pipeline for the last three and one-half months.

II. ORIENTATION

Talked to the Assistant Director, ORR, suggesting that if possible he place a woman on the ORR Panel at the Thirteenth Orientation Course. [redacted] received the suggestion favorably, and we will discuss it further in the next few days.

3. [redacted] called to recommend that [redacted] who works under [redacted] of [redacted] DD/P, would make a much better presentation at the Strategic Intelligence School (SIS) than [redacted] himself on the subject, The USSR Intelligence Agencies. [redacted] had talked this over with [redacted] who agreed with the suggestion. The Chief, OB/D, brought the subject to the attention of the Assistant Commandant, SIS, Col. Harold Kehm, who stated that he was always glad of any change which is motivated to strengthen the school curriculum. The Chief, OB/D, plans to attend the lecture of [redacted] at SIS next Monday to evaluate the presentation and report his findings to the D/TR.
