EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Manila, May 14, 1949.

No. 0509

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to the Act of the Congress of the United States of America of March 24, 1934, [¹] more commonly referred to as the Philippine Independence Act; to the Joint Resolution of the Congress of the United States of America of June 29, 1944, [²] which authorized the President of the United States of America to acquire bases for the mutual protection of the United States and of the Philippines; to Joint Resolution No. 4 of the Congress of the Philippines, approved July 28, 1945, which authorized the President of the Philippines to enter into negotiations for the establishment of such bases; to the Treaty of General Relations (including the Protocol thereto) Between the United States of America and the Philippines signed on July 4, 1946; [³] to the Agreement Between the United States of America and the Republic of the Philippines Concerning Military Bases signed at Manila on March 14, 1947; [⁴] and to other legislation and public acts of the United States of America and of the Philippines pertinent to the transfer to the Republic of the Philippines, following the declaration of its independence, of certain United States military bases the use of which was not reserved to the United States by the aforementioned Agreement of March 14, 1947, or which have not otherwise been reserved, encumbered or disposed of, and to inform Your Excellency that, in accordance with its obligations under the aforesaid acts, resolutions and agreement, the Government of the United States of America relinquishes to the Government of the Philippines the use of, and transfers to that Government such right and title to, or interest in, the United States military reservations listed in Annex 1 attached hereto, as the United States may have therein. There is also annexed hereto a list of the available Executive Orders and Torrens Certificates of Title whereunder the United States has claimed title to and possession of the military reservations in the aforementioned Annex 1 attached hereto.

The Government of the United States recognizes the Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company as the lawful owner of certain buildings and installations at Camp Eldridge, Laguna. Therefore I desire to point out to Your Excellency that these particular installations are excepted from any of the provisions of this note concerning the turnover of installations and improvements on the military reservations listed in the aforementioned Annex 1 attached hereto.

I further desire to inform Your Excellency that the United States Government assures the Philippine Government that it will make no claims now or in the future against the Philippine Government with a view to recovering funds expended in the acquisition of title to the temporary bases and installations included in the military reservations listed in the aforementioned Annex 1 attached hereto.

In hereby making final and formal the transfer of the property listed in Annex 1 attached hereto, the United States requests that the Republic of the Philippines assume as of March 27, 1949 all responsibility, risk of loss, and liability for the care, custody, protection and maintenance of said property, including liability for damage to person or property sustained on or after March 27, 1949 as a result of dangerous or defective conditions existing on or after that date, and the Republic of the Philippines agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the United States, members of its armed forces and its civilian employees from the aforesaid responsibility, risk of loss, and liability. The United States makes no warranty of title to the property listed in Annex 1 attached hereto or of the condition of said property or of its fitness for any other purpose.

In hereby making final and formal the transfer of the military reservations listed in Annex 1 attached hereto, the United States also requests that the Republic of the Philippines agree that while it is understood that the buildings and other improvements located thereon are transferred without charge against or reference to the Surplus Property Agreement signed September 11, 1946, [1] this understanding relates only to the transfer of military reservations covered by this note.

I am authorized by my Government to state that an acknowledgment of the receipt of this note containing Your Excellency's assurances that the terms and conditions thereof are acceptable to Your Excellency's Government will be considered by my Government as constituting an agreement for the relinquishment to the Government of the Philippines of the use, and the transfer to that Government of such right and title to, and possession of, the United States military reservations listed in Annex 1 attached hereto, as the United States may have therein, and as evidence that such relinquishment or transfer has been fully accomplished.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

MANILA, May 16, 1949

SIR:

I am pleased to acknowledge the receipt of your note 509 [1] of May 14, 1949, and its enclosures, which note reads as follows:

"I have the honor to refer to the Act of the Congress of the United States of America of March 24, 1934, more commonly referred to as the Philippine Independence Act; to the Joint Resolution of the Congress of the United States of America of June 29, 1944, which authorized the President of the United States of America to acquire bases for the mutual protection of the United States and of the Philippines; to Joint Resolution No. 4 of the Congress of the Philippines, approved July 28, 1945, which authorized the President of the Philippines to enter into negotiations for the establishment of such bases; to the Treaty of General Relations (including the Protocol thereto) Between the United States of America and the Philippines signed on July 4, 1946; to the Agreement Between the United States of America and the Republic of the Philippines Concerning Military Bases signed at Manila on March 14, 1947; and to other legislation and public acts of the United States of America and of the Philippines pertinent to the transfer to the Republic of the Philippines, following the declaration of its independence, of certain United States military bases the use of which was not reserved to the United States by the aforementioned Agreement of March 14, 1947, or which have not otherwise been reserved, encumbered or disposed of, and to inform Your Excellency that, in accordance with its obligations under the aforesaid acts, resolutions and agreement, the Government of the United States of America relinquishes to the Government of the Philippines the use of, and transfers to that Government such right and title to, or interest in, the United States military reservations listed in Annex 1 attached hereto, as the United States may have therein. There is also annexed hereto a list of the available Executive Orders and Torrens Certificates of Title whereunder the United States has claimed title to and possession of the military reservations in the aforementioned Annex 1 attached hereto.

"The Government of the United States recognizes the Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company as the lawful owner of certain buildings and installations at Camp Eldridge, Laguna. Therefore

I desire to point out to Your Excellency that these particular installations are excepted from any of the provisions of this note concerning the turnover of installations and improvements on the military reservations listed in the aforementioned Annex 1 attached hereto.

"I further desire to inform Your Excellency that the United States Government assures the Philippine Government that it will make no claims now or in the future against the Philippine Government with a view to recovering funds expended in the acquisition of title to the temporary bases and installations included in the military reservations listed in the aforementioned Annex 1 attached hereto.

"In hereby making final and formal the transfer of the property listed in Annex 1 attached hereto, the United States requests that the Republic of the Philippines assume as of March 27, 1949 all responsibility, risk of loss, and liability for the care, custody, protection and maintenance of said property, including liability for damage to person or property sustained on or after March 27, 1949 as a result of dangerous or defective conditions existing on or after that date, and the Republic of the Philippines agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the United States, members of its armed forces and its civilian employees from the aforesaid responsibility, risk of loss, and liability. The United States makes no warranty of title to the property listed in Annex 1 attached hereto or of the condition of said property or of its fitness for any other purpose.

"In hereby making final and formal the transfer of the military reservations listed in Annex 1 attached hereto, the United States also requests that the Republic of the Philippines agree that while it is understood that the buildings and other improvements located thereon are transferred without charge against or reference to the Surplus Property Agreement signed September 11, 1946, this understanding relates only to the transfer of military reservations covered by this note.

"I am authorized by my Government to state that an acknowledgment of the receipt of this note containing Your Excellency's assurances that the terms and conditions thereof are acceptable to Your Excellency's Government will be considered by my Government as constituting an agreement for the relinquishment to the Government of the Philippines of the use, and the transfer to that Government of such right and title to, and possession of, the United States military reservations listed in Annex 1 attached hereto, as the United States may have therein, and as evidence that such relinquishment or transfer has been fully accomplished.

"Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration."

I am happy to inform you that an agreement in the sense described in the foregoing note is acceptable to the Government of the Philippines; and that this Government agrees to consider the Embassy's note No. 509 of May 14, 1949, and its enclosures, together with the present reply thereto as constituting an agreement arrived at between our two Governments on the subject of relinquishment to the Government of the Philippines of the use; and the transfer to that Government of such right and title to, and possession of, the United States military reservations listed in the enclosure Annex 1, as the United States may have therein, and as evidence that such relinquishment or transfer has been fully accomplished, effective as of March 27, 1949.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my high consideration.

MEMORANDUM

On the understanding of the Philippine Government regarding its acceptance of paragraph five of the Embassy's Note No. 509 of May 14, 1949 concerning the relinquishment and transfer to the Republic of the Philippines of temporary quarters and installations listed in Annex No. 1 attached thereto.

It is the understanding of the Philippine Government that acceptance of paragraph five of the Embassy's Note No. 509 of May 14, 1949 does not preclude said Government from seeking the consideration of the understanding enunciated therein with respect to future relinquishment or transfer of United States military installations.
