STATOTHR

Dear George:

Thank you very much for your January 29 letter. Incidentally, I have had you very much in mind over the past months but have not had an opening in my office or otherwise that I thought would be sufficiently interesting to discuss with you.

STATOTHR

As far as [redacted] goes, the name strikes a bell, and I think I will know him when I see him. I shall be very glad to have him come in at almost any time and see if there isn't some way we can use his experience and background. As I plan to make a couple of visits to New York in the near future, he had better call or write me when he knows what days he will be here.

I unfortunately haven't any business which will take me to Philadelphia in the near future, but hope that something will call you down here, and I can give you a lunch.

Very truly yours,

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
