1. We have arranged an informal meeting of interested SIC and LAS personnel to hear Professor Roger Sweringen of the University of Southern California discuss a conference he is conducting next summer on "Russia and Asia."

2. Williams and Caldwell of TSS have discussed with us their interest in a special French course for technical personnel. We have agreed to help within our capability (which excludes duty-hour instruction), and have offered several proposals that they now are considering.

3. Seven QRP's considered candidates for intensive and tutorial language training.
