A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None to report.

B. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. Beginning with a request last fall to plan training in Greek for [redacted] early in 1959, as an alternative to inferior tutorial training, we have been able to develop a class of five staff employees and one dependent. The training, of course, will be superior to what we otherwise would have had to give any one of these. Significant, I think, is that four of the persons are DDS employees, possibly representing translation into action of Col. White's expressed concern for language training.

2. File studies, interviews and panels this week on three candidates for Greek and one for Norwegian (tutorial).

3. [redacted] spent about 1½ hours with [redacted] in connection with the ACLS survey for the Office of Education. Discussion was on generalities rather than on the Agency, and we were able to contribute one original idea that she said should play prominently in her report.

4. We are completing preparation of Career Plans for the next CSB meeting.

5. Inter-agency Roundtable this Friday with Navy as host. Meeting will be held in conference room of the Chief of Naval Personnel.
