NOTES: Countries which had no trade with Poland in 1947 and 1952, or whose trade in those years was less than $500 have been omitted from this list.

An n.r. in any column indicates that trade between the two countries was not reported. An n.a. indicates that figures were not available. Although such trade, if any, was probably small, the total figures are too low by this unknown amount.

Where 1952 figures were not available, 1951 statistics have been used and so indicated.

Figures do not include transit trade.

FREE WORLD'S TRADE WITH COMMUNISTS

The Foreign Operations Administration reported last week that the Communist bloc's trade with the free world declined in 1953. Charts show factors in East-West trade.
