[REDACTED] returned from TDY 9 June 1958 and Mr. P. [REDACTED] on 23 June 1958 in support of the COCOM Delegation in Paris. ✓

4. Administration

Two man-months of Branch analyst time were expended during May and June on TDY travel in connection with providing intelligence support to the COCOM list review. Because this came at a critical time in the production schedule, some Branch research rescheduling will be required. Action is being taken to adjust present research to enable the most pressing NIE support contributions to be met on schedule. Some modifications of other Branch effort will be required. An adjusted schedule is being drawn up and will be forwarded for approval. ✓

6. Problems

25X1A9a

In connection with current Branch difficulties in obtaining adequate coverage of Soviet periodical literature, a meeting was held on 27 June with the Deputy Chief, FDD. ORR representatives present included [redacted]. Assurances were given that the problems could be solved readily by the reassignment, on the part of FDD, of the exploitation responsibility over Soviet electronic industrial production. An informal draft copy of a Branch memorandum formally requesting this action was provided for the use of FDD in making their plans. The formal copy is being forwarded.
