My dear Mr. Sagendorph,

I have been informed by Mr. [REDACTED] of your offer to turn over certain records which appear to be of value for long-range planning.

It appears that the records will be of interest to the Central Intelligence Group and your kind offer is accepted.

It is noted that the records are contained for the most part in four large loose leaf books which I assume can be forwarded by mail. If this is correct it will be appreciated if you will mail the records to the following address:

The Director
Central Intelligence Group
Room 2011, New War Department Building
21st Street and Virginia Avenue, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Please accept my thanks for the opportunity of reviewing these records. Should you desire them returned to you or disposed of otherwise after they have served our purpose I shall be happy to arrange it in accordance with your wishes.

Sincerely,

Signed

SIDNEY W. SOBERS
