10. [redacted] Received from Mr. James Kendall, Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Preparedness Investigation, a copy of an item of correspondence from Senator Stennis to a constituent concerning Soviet activities in Cuba. Mr. Kendall requested that we meet with him the first of the week and provide him with a preliminary briefing on the situation in Cuba as it now stands, looking to a possible personal briefing of Senator Stennis on this same subject. I told Mr. Kendall that I would arrange it and be in touch with him on Monday to set a time for meeting with him.

11. [redacted] In conversation with Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, extended our luncheon invitation to him for next week to include Mr. John Martiny, Committee Counsel, and Mr. William Irvine, Minority Counsel. Mr. Johnson expressed his personal appreciation that we had enlarged the invitation to include these two individuals, who have his complete personal confidence and, in his judgment, the complete confidence of the Committee members.

[redacted]

13. [redacted] [redacted] accompanied [redacted] and [redacted] to a meeting with Mr. David Martin, Assistant to Senator Thomas Dodd, on the subject of [redacted]

The Senator's preliminary paper on this subject will be released during the coming week, and as time permits, will be beefed up into an hour and one-half or so floor presentation in the Senate. Mr. Martin expressed the Senator's great personal appreciation for the background information provided for his use.
