ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 3 October 1966

25X1 1. [redacted] The Director appeared before the CIA Subcommittee of House Armed Services for approximately one and one-half hours. See Memorandum for the Record.

25X1 [redacted]

25X1 3. [redacted] Representative George H. Mahon
25X1 raised a question with me concerning a young lady, [redacted] [redacted] who recently EOD'd with the Agency. After I assured him we were very solicitous about young ladies from out of town, he said not to bother with the case. Nevertheless, we are checking it.

25X1 [redacted]

25X1 5. [redacted] Talked with Jim Cline, House Immigration and Nationality Subcommittee, who indicated that Congressman Durward G. Hall (R., Mo.) had just objected to an item on the private calendar and that this might well be a problem on the Rodino bill. I suggested that since we know Congressman Hall, we could discuss it with him if Mr. Cline thought it desirable. Mr. Cline thought this would be most helpful and said he would alert us when the bill is coming out of committee.

25X1 6. [redacted] Talked with Pat Meo, Assistant to Representa-25X1 tive Ogden Reid, and advised her that [redacted] had returned to the United States and is now with [redacted]
