OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 12 April 1966

25X1

1. [redacted] Met with Mr. Joe Wehler of Immigration and Naturalization to discuss the latest revision of the Rodino bill (H.R. 10400). We made some minor technical changes to the satisfaction of Mr. Wehler, who called Mr. Derringer at the Department of Justice and informed him that he, Wehler, is now satisfied with the bill. Wehler also explained that J. Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization prefers a report on the original H.R. 10400, incorporating such changes as appear desirable. Mr. Wehler, in my presence, dictated a new report for the Department of Justice, which will be furnished to the Bureau of the Budget. The report noted that the Department of Justice has no objections to the bill, and then listed the suggested changes. I shall check with Mr. Rommel of BOB early next week to discuss the BOB report to the Subcommittee.
