25X1

1. [redacted] Discussed the Rodino bill with Mary Sabine and Mr. Tryck of the Bureau of the Budget. After hearing the background of the bill, they were satisfied that BOB would have no objections if certain changes were made to satisfy the Department of Justice. Later, Miss Sabine called to say that although Mr. Rommel, Deputy Director, Legislative Reference, BOB, had no problems with the immediate purpose of the bill, he questioned the general policy of the bill and desired a conference with State and Justice at which the Agency could be represented if desired. I shall follow up on this. See Memorandum for the Record.
