

SECRET

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 3 March 1966

1. [redacted] Delivered the edited text of the testimony of [redacted] before the CIA Subcommittee of House Armed Services to Mr. Blandford, Chief Counsel of the Subcommittee.

2. [redacted] Delivered three copies of the books of proposed testimony of [redacted] to Philip Kelleher, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, together with negatives of the exhibits which are to be included in the report.

3. [redacted] Discussed the case of [redacted] with James Cline, Counsel of the House Immigration Subcommittee. Mr. Helms had received a call from Senator McCarthy who indicated that Representative Emanuel Celler wanted assurance [redacted] Mr. Cline indicated that he himself was the party at interest and that the real question was whether there is Agency interest. I assured Cline that there is and also [redacted]. Cline said he would pass this information on to Mr. Celler.

4. [redacted] Discussed the Rodino bill on RFE and Radio Liberty with Mr. Cline. It appears that the bill is still awaiting a report from the Justice Department which has had it for over eight months. Cline suggested that we get in touch with Justice and see if we can pry the bill loose. Mr. Houston was informed and will be in touch with Justice.

[Large redacted block]

SECRET