25X1 4. [redacted] I asked Sourwine if he had received further inquiry concerning [redacted] He said he had not.

I mentioned to Sourwine for his information that the Agency was having a bill introduced to preclude the use of the name and initials of CIA by unauthorized persons and that this bill undoubtedly would be referred to the Judiciary Committees of the House and Senate. Sourwine said he was sure this was the case and that it would be assigned to a special subcommittee which is composed of Senators McClellan and Dirksen.

25X1 5. [redacted] Left with the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy and Colonel Glenn Smith, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, copies of the JAEIC Alert Work Sheets.

25X1 6. [redacted] Attempted to see Russ Blandford to pick up several items about which he had called us but he was unavailable. We will attempt to reach him again tomorrow.

25X1 7. [redacted] The Director, accompanied by John S. Warner, met with Senator Milton Young for approximately half an hour. The Director exhibited various publications including the President's check list, a memorandum on Vietnam, and discussed the CIB and exhibited the NIS on China. The Director explained how these were pulled together and disseminated. The Director then exhibited our budget book discussing the long-range plan and the management and planning mechanisms which assist him in managing the Agency. He pointed out the discussions with Mr. Schultze of the Bureau of the Budget on the Agency budget and planning mechanisms. He stated that this book was held by Bill Darden and was available at any time. The Director was very specific that we would like to be of assistance to Senator Young at any time he had any needs.

25X1 [redacted] The Senator was most appreciative of the Director dropping by.

25X1 8. [redacted] The CIA Subcommittee of Senate Armed Services and Senate Appropriations met without witnesses to discuss the proposal from Senator Fulbright that members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee sit with the CIA Subcommittee at its meetings. We
